The body of Mr. Robert Robinson, late Clerk of the Second ward market, whose death was announced yesterday, was laid to rest in Mt. Wood cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. T. McClure, pastor of the Bulied Prosbyterian Church, conducted brief and impressive services at the family resiglence in the North End. The Juneral was in charge of the Odd Fellows, of whose order the deceased was an honored member, and several lodges were largely represented among those present. A number of Councilmen, the Mayor and other city officers also attended in a body.

John McLaughlip's Condition

John McLaughlin's Condition.

John McLaughlin, who was cut by Mike Lane Sunday afternoon, was resting last night more easily han on the previous evening, but his symptoms were such as to preclude anything like an asturance of recovery. Yesterday blood passed from his kidneys, which makes it appear probable that this organ was touched by the knife. His left lung is also about half (full of blood. What the result of the indiamination which shows signs of haying set in may be it is impossible to conjecture yet. Though the chances are decidedly spainst his recovery, men with worse wounds have been known to ultimately recover from all ill effects. A recent case affording somewhat of an analogy is that of Conaway, the man shot at West Wheeling two weeks or so ago. Though the ball pierced one lung, and his wound was bronounced fatal by the attending physicians, he not only still lives, but is steadily mending his condition and will probably recover. Lane is still in jail.

The general opinion over the river seems to be that the convention will not be a long one. As stated yesterday Col. Taylor leads one. As stated yesterday Col. Taylor leads his opponents in number of delegates, but has not a clear majority on tha first ballot. If there is not a treak in some of the other delegations early in the balloting, it is doubtful whether he can be nominated. A dark horse is considered among the probabilities, and some of the prominent men of the party layer canyased the situation and selected a prominent Republican who may be spring on the convention if there are signs of a deadlock.

An intilioned reporter while at Belliare yesterday called on Colonel Poorman and asked his opinion of the situation. He said he believed Colonel Taylor would be nominated on the second or third ballot. He himself had not made any canyase, nor considered himself a candidate, though some of his friends had arged him to make the fight

Mr. Hollingsworth arrived in Bellaire yesterday, and the reporter met him at the Globe House. He had not made any estimate of his strength on the first ballor, as he had not sufficient reliable returns from the primaries to form an intelligent opinion as to how he would stand. He carried the twenty-four yotes of his own county, Harrison, Solid, with three in Flushing precinct of Belmont county, and seyeral at St. Clairsylle and elsewhere of which he knew reliably. A number of other precincts were claimed by his friends, for myself if I were so tortunate as to be the nominges."

In regard to the ciaim that Harrison county had had more than her share of the emoluments and renown of the district's Hepresentative, Mr. Hollingsworth said this was a claim founded on a lack of knowledge of the history of the territory which now forms the Seventeenth district. When Bingham went to Congress it was from the old Twenty-first district, and at the same time Guernsey had a representative. Subsequently Belmont had the representative from the Seventeenth district while Harrison had that of the Twenty-first. The only reason that Harrison kept hers while the others did not was that Bingham was re-elected while Morris, of Monroe, and Lawrence, of Guernsey, Democrats, beat the Republican candidates.

The announcement made through the columns of the New-Letter, Sinulay last, by D. Gundling & Co., the enterprising proprietors of the Star ciothing house, that they would give a valuable watch to the person gasssing the number or coming nearest the number engraved upon the works of the watch, has been the means of creating great excliment among all classes. The watch to be contested for has been placed in the hands of Mr. Joseph Jefferson, teller of the hands of Mr. Joseph Jefferson that hands of Mr. Joseph Jefferson that hands of the Start No. Inches of goods is necessary. All that is required is that you go there, put your name upon the list and any number you may choose opposite it. The book will remain open until the Sits of January, 1883, when the person guessing the number or coming the searest the one engrayed on the works of the watch will receive the same. One more Christmas has come and gone one of these, and the free indulgence in the roclivity to shoot fire crackers and pistols proclivity to shoot three crackers and platons another. Long before daylight the streets were alive with people, and the boys enjoyed a benefit with all kinds of explosives.

About four o'clock the racket was broken in upon by the pealing of the church bells, and soon after the crowds that througed the streets took on another aspect, those who had risen for early mass predominating.

risen for early mass predominating.

At early as half past four, while the full moon was still high in the heavens, there was a large crowd gathered in front of the Cathedral on Eoff street. It constantly increased, people conting from every direction. A few momenta before five the doors were opened, and the large edifice was filled almost instantly, the alsies being crowded, and many people were turned away. The special poor contribution tables at the doors were laden down with coin. The first mass, a low one, was said by Rev. Father Mullivan, and at its conclusion preparations were began for the Pontifical High Mass, which was celebrated by Bishop Knin, he having for his deacon Rev. Father Dechan.

At 5.30 clock the scene was a solemn one. At 5.50 clock the scene was a solemn one. The high alter and lofty cathedral ablaze with light and the celebranis in their rich robessurrounded by the altar boys while over tail arose the incense smoke. All felt the occasion to be a very impressive one. Very Rev. J. T. Sullivan, Vicar General of the diocese, preached the senon appointed for this occasion, and he delivered a masterly discourse appropriate to Christmas—the greatest Festival of the Catholic Church. The

The "Jollittes" combination is well named, for a greater amount of Jollity has soldom been crowded into the same time in a Wheeling theatre. "The Electrical Doll" is a most amusing absurdity, and Mr. Gourley's "Alice Again" is the most original and langhable thing on the stage. Last night it was repeated to another full house. Both audiences were highly appreciative.

The Christmas Festival of the Sabbath School of the First Daptist Church, occurred last evening. The house was well filled with a delighted audience. The exercises consisted of carols by the School-receitations, solos and class choruses. The singing which was well rendered, was under the leadership of the pastor Rev. J. B. Mulford. Individual gitts were made to every scholar and teacher. Among the pleasant surprises was the gift of a handsome gold headed cane to the Superintendent Hon. Okey Johnson, who was unexpectedly detained at home by illness. The gift was purchased of the popular and pleasing firm of Miller & Franzhelm, and was superbin design and finish. Also a set of ten volumes of the British Poets to Mr. J. U. Amlok, the Assistant Superintendent.
